

FIREFIGHTER AND PARAMEDIC ITEMS

These items are no longer deductible under your W2 but may be deductible for fire or paramedic related work reported on a form 1099 for self-employment.

UNIFORMS
	Head gear – beanie cap, ear muffs, hat
	Under gear – long john’s t-shirts, under armor, winter socks
	Uniform pants and shirts and alterations
	Shoes or boots
	Gloves – winter, driving, searching
	Winter coat or jacket
	Sunglasses or range glasses
	Safety vest / bullet proof vest
	Other uniform items
FIRE OR MEDICAL GEAR
	Guns – Not used for W2 job
	Ammo and reload gear
	Targets and range fees
	Duty belt and accessories
	Flashlight and holder
	Badge and badge case
	Holster
	Duty bag
	First Aid kit
	Emergency equipment – lights, sirens, radio, scanner
	LTC License
	Gun safes – home and vehicle
	Scuba / First Aid or other gear
	Other fire or medical gear not listed
SUPPLIES
	Cooler
	Water and drinks for the cooler
	Office supplies – pens, paper, seat organizer, etc.
FITNESS
	Gym membership
	Supplements
	Gym gear and uniforms – shoes, sweats, shorts, etc.
	Fitness equipment at home
	Special Training – martial arts, cross fit, dietician, trainer, etc.
	Other fitness items not listed
SPECIAL TRAINING
	License
	Training classes and tests